CORAM: DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

21st August, 2006.

P.C. :

A suit instituted before this Court under the Parsi Marriage and Divorce Act, 1936 was resolved in terms of the Consent Terms that were agreed upon between the parties. A divorce by mutual consent was granted under Section 32-B by the order of this Court dated 26th July, 2001. The Consent Terms inter alia provided for the payment of alimony by the First Plaintiff to the Second Plaintiff. When the parties signed the Consent Terms both the children born from the marriage were minors. This Court has now been moved by the parties with modified Consent Terms. The modification that has been agreed upon by the parties is that the First Plaintiff would pay to the Second Plaintiff a lump sum amount of Rs.3.25 Crores in lieu of her claim for permanent alimony and maintenance. Both the children born from the marriage, Jamshed and Farhad have now attained majority and they have signed the Consent Terms in token of their acceptance. There is no reason why the modification as proposed by the parties should not be allowed. In the circumstances, the Consent Terms dated 12th August, 2006 signed by the parties, by their two children and by the advocates for the Plaintiffs are accordingly taken on record and marked as 'X'. There shall be an order in terms thereof.
